

Jeff Moran joined QPS in November 2009 as Director of Business Development responsible for Early Phase Clinical Services – West Coast

(November 2009) Newark, Delaware – We are pleased to announce Jeff Moran joined QPS in November 2009 as Director of Business Development responsible for Early Phase Clinical Services – West Coast. Jeff has been working in the pharmaceutical industry since 1995 and has held positions with increasing responsibility in bioanalysis, technical support, and business development. We are certain Jeff's knowledge and experience in bioanalysis and operations will provide a high level of service to our clients.