

Jim Cunningham joined QPS in October 2009 as Director of Business Development responsible for Early Phase Clinical Services – Central US Region

(October 2009) Newark, Delaware – We are pleased to announce Jim Cunningham joined QPS in October 2009 as Director of Business Development responsible for Early Phase Clinical Services – Central US region. Jim has been working in early phase clinical research since 2001 and has held positions in operations, patient recruiting, and business development. Jim has been involved with over 500 clinical studies. We are certain Jim's depth of knowledge and industry experience will provide a high level of service to our clients.